

Maggie

Maggie is a spirited, adventurous, loving otter. As a pup, she was abandoned and raised by the Monterey Bay Aquarium as a child. The researchers tried putting Maggie back out in the waters of Monterey. It was in this time that Heidi and Maggie met up and had a down-home surfing adventure. 2 to 3 months later, Maggie was found to be a risk to herself (she was probably way too friendly!) maybe she didn't have healthy boundaries.

Maggie was taken out of the waters of Monterey and put into the Monterey Bay Aquarium Otter Exhibit. She lived for nine years in Monterey and then was transferred to the Aquarium of the Pacific, in Long Beach. To find out more about Heidi and Maggie's time together on their surfing adventure, read Gray Matters!
